

Access instructions to the Center for Teaching & Learning facilities

CTL location

The Center for Teaching & Learning is located in the building of the Library and Information Center of the University of Patras, opposite the library facilities.

Go up the stairs of the main entrance of the building shown in the picture below.

Figure 1. Main entrance of library and information centre building

Then move to your right to enter the building where CTL is located, using the entrance shown below in the image.

Figure 2. Entrance of the building where CTL is located

After you have entered the building, you will see on your right the door with the relevant marking that leads to the small corridor to the CTL, as shown in the picture below.

Figure 3. CTL Entrance

CTL is located to the left of the small corridor, as shown in the image below.

Figure 4. CTL Entrance

Map showing the location of Main Library and Information Center building
Below in the image you see the location of the Library and Information Center building on the map where the Teaching and Learning Support Center facilities are also located.

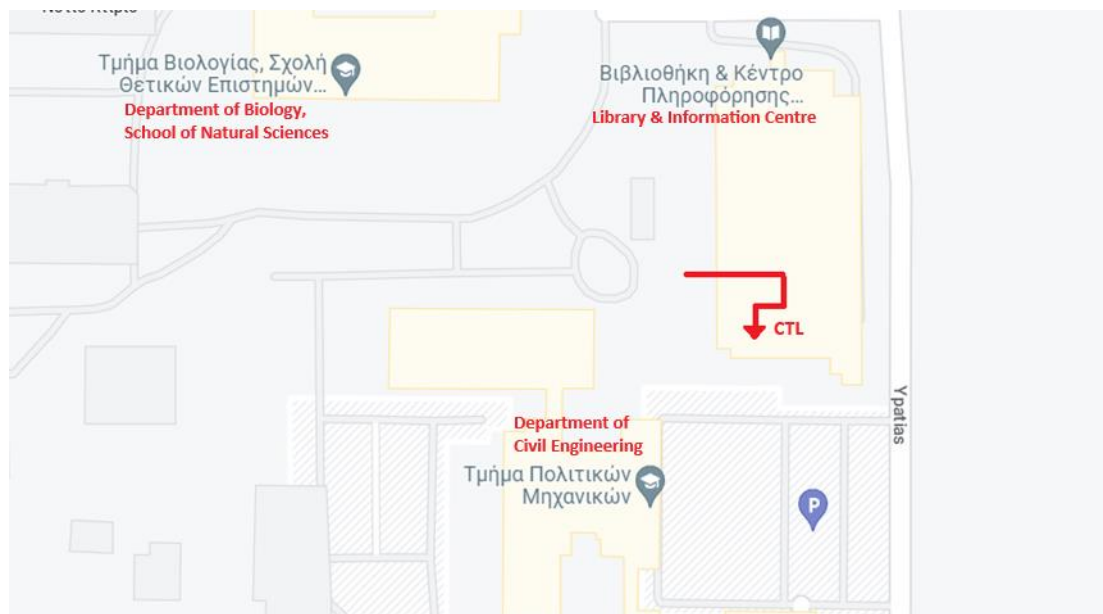

Figure 5. Map of CTL facilities location